

Holmes Run Acres Potential Historic Overlay District Frequently Asked Questions

FAQs

1. What is a Historic Overlay District (HOD)?
 - A zoning tool that helps to promote “the general welfare ...though the identification, preservation, and enhancement of those buildings, structures, neighborhoods, landscapes, places and areas that have historical, cultural, architectural or archaeological significance” (Z.O. 7-200)
 - Prevent encroachment of new buildings or structures
 - Promote upkeep and rehabilitation of older structures
 - Ensure new development within district is appropriate
 - Requires review of certain changes by the Architectural Review Board
2. What is the Architectural Review Board (ARB)?
 - Purpose is to administer the provisions of an HOD
 - Members appointed by the Board of Supervisors - professional expertise in historic preservation
 - Review and approve building permits and sign permits
 - Review and make recommendations for rezoning and site plan applications
3. What does an HOD Designation and what could it mean for your property?
 - ARB approval is required before a building permit can be issued and applies primarily to larger, exterior renovations, construction or demolition
 - ARB review is not required for interior alterations.
 - Re-roofing or re-siding of or structures within an HOD district when the replacement roofing or siding is like that being replaced would not be subject to ARB review.
 - Existing renovations can remain
 - Underlying rezoning (R-3) remains in place
 - ARB Review
